EMN Conference on Qualified Workers from Third Countries

On 20 November 2013 IOM as the National Contact Point of EMN in the Slovak Republic hosted the EMN conference Migration of Qualified Workers from Third Countries: Policies and Practice in Bratislava. The following topics were introduced by experts from Bratislava, Brussels, London, Prague and Vienna to over 70 participants: developments in migration policies, economic and fiscal impact of migration and measures implemented by EU countries in order to attract qualified workers from third countries. EMN representatives introduced findings of the national study as well as the synthesis report dealing with this topic.

IOM Trainings and Workshops on Migration

From October to December 2013, IOM organized two trainings in Piešťany and two workshops in Nitra and Trnava for 50 public administration representatives working with third-country nationals in Slovakia. The trainings, being the first part of the training programme, as well as the follow-up workshops focus on gaining skills in intercultural communication, knowledge in the field of migration, migrant integration and cooperation among the key institutions.

Representatives of migrant communities from Cameroon, Cuba and Vietnam shared their experiences of living and working in Slovakia with the training participants.

IOM and the Diversity Festival

Košice – European Capital of Culture 2013 started the second year of the Diversity Festival on 8 October 2013. The installment Hello&Goodbye that presented life stories of migrants living in Košice or Slovaks who lived abroad was the attraction of the festival. The testimonies were compiled and recorded by Austrian artists from unit Kunstlabor Graz in cooperation with the International Organization for Migration (IOM).

The Soup Festival held on 12 October 2013 in Kulturpark, Košice was the climax of the Diversity Festival. More than a thousand visitors could try and evaluate 27 soups. The professional jury, including an IOM representative, awarded The Golden Spoon for the best soup to Goral cottage cheese soup prepared by the Polish community.

One-Stop Shops in Bratislava and Košice

IOM Migration Information Centre (MIC) organized so-called One-Stop Shops – consultation days on 17 October in Bratislava and on 21 November in Košice. The complex counselling at one place was provided by the representatives of alien police department, labour offices, trade licensing office, health insurance companies, department of state citizenship and registry office, and MIC counsellors. Migrants from more than 10 countries attended the consultation days.

The Old Market Hall Experienced One Day on Migration

On Friday 18 October 2013 during the Development Day 2013 at the Old Market Hall in Bratislava IOM presented its work and results along with organizations active in international development cooperation, humanitarian assistance, global education and in assisting people and development activities beyond the Slovak borders. IOM presentation attracted both young people and adults who wanted to learn more about migration in the world and in Slovakia, who needed to be advised of various aspects of life of migrants, and who were interested in materials and activities which they could use to introduce migration in the school education. After the screening of films Aj my sme tu doma (We Are At Home Here) and Vitalie, the audience engaged in a discussion about migration in Slovakia and about the IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration Programme.

A New Home for 120 Refugees

Between October and December 2013 IOM, in cooperation with its partners, resettled 120 refugees from the Emergency Transit Centre \(ETC\) in Humenné to the United States of America. Out of these 120 refugees, 78 were resettled in November which is the highest number of refugees resettled in one month since the Centre was opened in August 2009. The ETC serves to accommodate refugees who found themselves in a difficult situation and were accepted into the program of humanitarian transfers.

The refugees were evacuated to the Slovak Republic which provided them with a temporary shelter for a period of 6 months. In safe conditions of the Centre the refugees will complete all necessary preparations, after which they will be resettled to a country that accepts them and offers them an opportunity to start a new life.

Info-meeting on Voluntary Returns and Reintegrations

IOM Bratislava organized a first information meeting on assisted voluntary returns and reintegrations (AVRR) with representatives of departments of alien and border police. The meeting took place on 8 October 2013 in Bratislava. A representative of IOM and of Bureau of Border and Alien Police of the Police Force Presidium introduced the way migrants are assisted before and after departure, current legislation in place and planned amendments to the legislation affecting the field of assisted voluntary returns. Short videos showing migrants' stories of return and their new beginnings following their return home were presented. The participants of the meeting expressed their appreciation as regards the services and various types of assistance provided to migrants by the Slovak Republic within the framework of the AVRR Programme. This meeting enabled individual participants to exchange their experiences with applicants for voluntary return and to discuss the issues linked to the implementation of voluntary returns in practice.

Migrant Communities Events

In the last three months of 2013, cultural mediators – representatives of migrants' communities – in cooperation and support of MIC in Bratislava and Košice, organized several events that introduced various countries, cultures and customs and supported community life of migrants. The newsletter presents three of these events, for information about other events, please visit the IOM Bratislava website.

Multicolour Christmas was hosted on the premises of Connect, Bratislava by cultural mediators. The evening of 14th December introduced Christmas customs of various cultures, singing, music and dance performances, food tasting, and even raffle prizes by cultural mediators of Afghan, Ukrainian, Latino American, Chinese, and African communities.

Information meeting Colours of Christmas in Beach Club, Košice created a pleasant atmosphere of pre-Christmas days for migrants and people from Košice. More than a hundred visitors could taste, see and learn about the Christmas customs and traditions held in Slovakia, Ukraine, Russia, USA, and Peru. All the good children were happy to welcome Saint Nicholas with his bag full of gifts.

10th annual popular festival Days of Ibero-American films took place in November in Bratislava, organized by the Latino American community. The three days of festival offered visitors films of contemporary Brazilian, Cuban, and Columbian cinematography; photography exhibitions or concert of Mariachi musicians. Moreover, presentation of MIC activities was part of this festival, attended by over a hundred people.
